

GANGGANG

ARTIST OPPORTUNITY

Seeking creatives with interest in designing a mural that incorporates elements of local culture, Marathon Health brand elements, and your artistic style. Ideal candidates will also have the ability to digitally layout their design to be applied via wall vinyl. Creative process will involve creating 2-3 concepts that are presented to the client before incorporating client input into a final design.

GANGGANG will lead the creative process presenting or co-presenting (along with you) your concepts and the final piece, coordinating the fabrication and installation of the final piece, and handling contracts and payments.

GANGGANG's goal is to pay back the culture by working with creatives like you to build more beauty, equity, and culture in cities.
